nasembled at this popular music hall last bight; nor have we ever witnessed a more varied and interesting performance, the chief feature of which was the dancing of the young and beautiful Spanish damesuse, Mile Marietta. Every one who is fond of graceful and artistic dancing bhould see this gifted young lady in her highly creditable performance. A monster programme is offered for to-night, smbracing fundy Budworth in his amusing note, and such thent as that of Denny Gallagher, J. S. Clark and others. The Delevants Brothers and Wille Armstrong in their surprising feats; also, Harrison in his extemporaneous singing, and not the least of all, that charming little favorite, Neille Taylor, will sing several ballade, and the Missee College and Allen will appear in their admired dances.

THE GAINTER.—We call especial attention of our amusement and music-loving readers to the advertisement of this company, which we publish in another column. This will be a place where ladies and families can go with propriety. It will open next Monday night.

City Councile.

City Councile,

City Councils.

It seems that by means of sending expressly for several members of the Board of Aldermen, that body succeeded in getting a quorum together at a very late hour, when the following business was transacted:

The Chair (Mr. Clephane) laid before the Board a message from the Mayor, setting forth that an imperative necessity for the speedy perfection of the amenda tax bill induced him to call them together. He suggested a modification of the amendment proposed thereto, making an additional levy for the purpose of offering bounties to encourage enlistments. The act of May 18th, 1820, provides that no tax shall be laid on real property at a greater rate than of one per cent. The act of May 18th, 1820, provides that no tax shall be laid on real property at a greater rate than of one per cent. The act of May 18th, 1840, extends the same provision to all personal property, except for special purposes therein enumerated, and after providing for all objects of a general nature and taxes to raised in each ward shall be expended therein and no other. The power to lay a special tax is thus imited to a few cases, under none of which can the proposed amendment be classed. The Mayor does not suppose the amendment would meet with any objection from the clittons of washington, but he is seriously apprehensive that sales of property for default in payment of taxes under the operation of the amendment may and will be est aside and made vold, because it takes a tax for a special purpose not summerated or provided for in the observer. The Mayor then suggests the propriety of simply adding to the tax levy the amount by way be required without reference to any purpose or any intended application of the money.

The tax bill was then taken up, and the Board of Common Councit.

The Board also receded from its amendment to the bounty bill.

Mr. Semmes offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the secretary be instructed to enforce the law in reference to members absent from the meetings of this Board.

Piret Arrival of the "300,000 Mare." Yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock, the One-hundred-and seventh regiment of New York, the first to reach Washington under the new sall, arrived in the city on the care from Baitt-more. The regiment is fully equipped, ready for service, and numbers the full complement of 1,040 men. The men were recruited in Steu-ten and Chemung counties, New York, and the principal officers are R. B. Van Valkenburgh, colonel, and Lieut. Col. Alex. Diven, members of Congress.

The Steamer George Weems, Capt. Theodore Weems, of the Baitmore and Paiuxent river line of steamers, was selzed in the inter river last Wednesday, by order of Gen. Wool.

The selzure was made by a detachment of the 37th New York regiment under Capt. Smith, who went out to the steamer in the tug Tempest, Capt. S. P. Bowen.

The selzure weems had a full cargo which she was carrying to Baltimore from the lower counties of Maryinad, consisting of tobacca and grain. She also carried 19 passengers, two of whom are females. "Secosh" Boarding-Houses.

"Secesh" Boarding-Houses.

A correspondent in this city writes a doleful complaint against these institutions. The best advice we can offer to him and others simularly unfortunate, is to "akedaddle," "out out," 'vamose the ranche" at once and forever. Hear the sad story:

It is extremely amusing to see the good "Union" people put up with the impositions of "secesh" in their boarding-house. One case will illustrate the whole. For instance, we stay in a "secesh" boarding-house, one of the F. F. V.'s, "real old Virguis stock," and the yay they board us is a caution to all "live Yankese." We are entertained with the following variety during the month, to wit: Tainted fish, stale beefsteak fried in grease, must get and for dakes, ranch butter, chicken isg, wings, necks and backs, a few corn, a potatos, and for desert, a stale mellon. We also have the name of coffee and the color of tea.

All this, Mr. Editor, we have for the high privilege of living in a house with an "F. F. V.".

If there was not a little sympathy with "secosh" it does appear to me that good loyal people would not put up with such impositions.

If there was not a little sympathy with "se-cosh," It does appear to me that good, loyal people would not put up with such impositions, particularly "Yankees" from "away down East."

Ten youths, the greater portion of them school-boys, were arrested by the police of the Second Precinct for bathing in Rock creek, between Washington and Georgetown, near the county line. They were fined seventy-five cents each, except the oldest, who was required to pay the sum of $2.58.

Nine more school-boys and others were also arrested by the Georgetown police for the same offscoe. A few of the youngest were dismissed, and the others fined seventy-five cents each.

Patrolman W. M. Kelly, of the Third ward, succeeded in arresting a well-known rebel last Thursday night. His name is Thomas Dodson, of Fairfax county, Virginia. He came to this city towist some relatives, when Kelly fortunately discovered him, and knowing his character, he took him in hand. He was turned over to the provost marshal.

Three hundred dollars in Confederate money was found on Dodson's person when he was arrested. He lived in Memphis, Tenn., at the time of the breaking out of the rebellion, and was engaged early in the contest in pressing young men from Washington and other places into the rebel army.

Pairolman Kelly deserves great credit for his indefatigable energy in ferreting out and arresting the enemies of our country, as well as the disturbers of the peace of our city.

The same day, a squad of the guard from the central guard-house arrested Bernard Donnelly, a coach painter in the employ of J. M. Dennis, Sixth street, near C. He is charged with disloyalty, and was confined in the central guard-house, to await the marshall's orders. All loyal citizens are rajoloing at every case of arrest of this character. Trasson and traitors in this city have been telerated long enough.

The Sweet! The Beautiful! The Pair! The Sweet! The Beautiful! The Pair! We last night had the good fortune of taking a giance at Pairy isnd, and for a moment were so confounded that we were doubtful whether we were in the "land of enchantment." Cerewith the magic influence of the breezes of Araby the blest, and the smiles of the isddes fair, were well calculated to make the hearts of all present expand most genially. Ahem! We are speaking of the Pair at Odd Pellows! Hall, for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers. We have never seen the Hall so beautifully decorated, nor so strong and touching a real manifested for the herces of our "dear old dag." Let all the patriotic swell the throng and share in the pleasures and profits of the "most delightful Fair ever held in Washington."

This company has found that the igrade of the street around the north of the Capitol is too steep, and they have obtained permission to use the lot adjoining, and are now constructing their road across said lot to the corner of B street and New Jersey avenue, (from which point a branch will run to the depot of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad), thence up B street to Delaware avenue, directly along the east front of the Capitol to Pennsylvania avenue, and thence to the Mayy-Yard gate. The construction of this portion of the road is being pushed forward with energy, and will be completed very shortly.

The Smanetpatten Commis

That excellent and efficient officer, Brigade Surgeon W. D. Stewart, who has for a long time served so faithfully in our city as a member of Gen. Wadsworth's staff, has been suddenly ordered to report for duty for the time being to Major General Burnside. He may be more useful in his new field of labor, but there are many here who will part with him with regret.

Heeruiting. In this city is going on vigorously, we are much gratified to learn. The prospect now is that the old regiments will be speedily filled, and two new ones organized. Pifteen men were recruited for one of the old regiments yesterday. Roll on the ball. Let the capital prove worthy ber great name.

Btealing. Wm. H. Meredith was arrested about 10 o'clock yesterday by Officer De Yaughn, of the Seventh ward police, charged with stealing the sum of $18 from Alonzo Reeves. He was taken before Justice Sitraten, who, being dedirous of oalling other witnesses, postponed his case for further hearing.

Stealing a Pistol. Owen Fairall was arrested on Wednesday by Officer Beavers, of the Third ward, on the charge of stealing a pistol from Alex. Penniss. The pistol is a regular Golt's dragoou revolver. The case was tried by Justice Clark, who sent the prisoner to jail for court.

Deserters. Eleven deserters from Gen. Banke's division were arrested at Hagerstown, Maryland, re-contly, and brought to this city yesterday and placed in the central guard-house, until they can be returned to their regiments.

TTO THE CITIZENS OF GEORGETOWN, D.C.

We have been authorised to invite the citizens of this town to make an early and liberal count by the citizens of the town to make an early and liberal count by the citizens of money in said of the National Administration in its efforts to terminate the Scanbern rebellion. There are many reasons why we should do so. Our proximity to the seat of Government, the large sums which have been apprepriated by Congress for the improvement of our town, the protection of its property, and the preservation of its peace, should not be lorgotten in such n eason a the present. The war, itself, loosily and incidentally, has brought no disaster upon us, but has given a great deal of profit-able amployment to aur people immensely increased the bu-faces of this district, and brought fortunes to hundreds.
